Using your personal information

What information do we collect?

We collect personal information when needed from individuals (and businesses) to provide our services and carry out our statutory functions. These include the processing of animal licence applications, including inspections and associated enforcement activities

Your personal information will be processed by Environmental Health and Licensing for the purpose it was given. Some of your personal information may also be shared with other council departments/service teams who need the information to provide a service that you have requested.

The Council is required by legislation to keep public registers. This means that the information provided will be made available to the public.

The Council is under a duty to protect public funds, and to this end we may use the information that you provide to us for the prevention and detection of fraud. To meet these obligations we take part in data matching exercises such as the National Fraud Initiative. For further information see www.bolsover.gov.uk/www.ne-derbyshire.gov.uk

We may also share information for data matching purposes with other bodies responsible for auditing or administering public funds such as the Police, HM Revenues and Customs, Department for Work and Pensions and other Local Authorities. For more information on how we use personal information please go to our privacy statement on our website www.bolsover.gov.uk / www.ne-derbyshire.gov.uk or use the contact details on the accompanying letter.
